

Parental Faith Communication

Please tell us about your relationship to your parents. These may be your biological parents, stepparents, guardians, etc.--in other words, the adults who live with you and have a supervisory role.

Do your parents profess to be Christians?

- No Yes, both Yes, mother only Yes, father only

How often does your mother/stepmother talk with you about her own faith or beliefs in God?

- Never Almost never A few times a month A few times a week Almost every day

How often does your father/stepfather talk to you about his own faith or beliefs about God?

- Never Almost never A few times a month A few times a week Almost every day

How often does your mother / stepmother talk with you about YOUR faith or what YOU believe about God?

- Never Almost never A few times a month A few times a week Almost every day

How often does your father/stepfather talk with you about YOUR faith or what YOU believe about God?

- Never Almost never A few times a month A few times a week Almost every day

How much does your mother/stepmother really live out what she says she believes, or “practice what she preaches”?

- Not much Sometimes Usually Always

How much does your father/stepfather really live out what he says he believes, or “practice what he preaches”?

- Not much Sometimes Usually Always